INTERFAITH WEEK 2022: 'HOME' QUILT PROJECT LAUNCHED IN KIRKLEES

Six months to go until national Interfaith week 13-20 November 2022!

In preparation for Interfaith week 2022, communities in Kirklees are creating a community quilt reflecting people's concept of 'Home'. Individuals and groups are invited to contribute a 25 x 25cm panel. The quilt project was initiated by Hannah Mc Kerchar, Humanist celebrant and vice-chair of Kirklees SACRE.

She says: "I've always loved the way textiles combine art and purpose, useful objects also conveying thoughts and ideas. And I love the sense of threads binding us all together. Textiles are woven into all our lives, regardless of our worldview or beliefs, as is the idea of 'home' - though that idea can mean so many different things to different people.

Especially at the moment, when so many are having to change their idea of where or what home is, or having to look for a home somewhere new, it seemed important to take the time to reflect. I hope that the quilt will allow people to notice the things we all have in common, while enjoying the immense diversity our community encompasses. I hope that, as its original purpose intended, it will be an item that brings comfort and shows the warm welcome that Kirklees communities extend to everyone within them."

Everyone is welcome to take part by contributing a panel for the quilt. You can work as an individual or as a group and help is available if you need support with the stitching. Panels need to be 25 x 25 cm. You can drop off your completed quilt panels at local libraries throughout Kirklees before 30th September 2022.

Schools are invited to contribute panels to the Kirklees quilt – or they may wish to create their own quilts using textiles or paper. Please tell us about any school-based quilt projects so that we can include them in Interfaith Week celebrations. The Kirklees quilt will be on display during Interfaith Week.

SACRE SURVEY OF RE PROVISION IN SECONDARY AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS

Every local authority has a Standing Advisory Council on RE (SACRE). This has a statutory duty to produce a syllabus for RE and to support and monitor RE in all primary schools (including academies).

Earlier this year, SACREs in Calderdale, Kirklees, Leeds and Tameside asked secondary schools to complete a brief survey about the provision of RE. Over 80% of schools replied and, as well as being helpful to SACRE, enabled them to offer some tailored support which has made a real difference in a number of schools. In the next few weeks a similar survey is being sent to secondary schools in Oldham and to all primary schools in five SACRE areas. If you don't get a letter, please contact us for the link (enquiries@penninelearning.com). We are very grateful for your help with this and trust it will help you too. The survey takes 5 minutes or less, honest!

There are also vacancies for primary and secondary teachers on all SACREs, and especially in Leeds. There are four meetings a year, generally late afternoon. Membership will give you an insight into RE at the local authority level, contacts with faith community members and will really help us hear the voice of practising teachers. If you are interested contact Alastair Ross alastair@penninelearning.com

LANDMARK DATA REVIEW REVEALS UNDERFUNDING AND NEGLECT OF RE

A comprehensive 'state of RE' data analysis, carried out by a team from the Religious Education Council of England and Wales (REC), the National Association of Teachers of Religious Education (NATRE) and RE Today Services, has revealed the extent of the underfunding and neglect of RE over recent years. Despite an increase in students taking RS at GCSE and A Level, no government money has been spent on the subject in the last five years, while many academies fail to offer the high-quality RE provision that, according to Ofsted, 'affords students the opportunity to make sense of their own place in the world'.

The most significant findings from the review are:

- A 50% increase in A-level entries for Religious Studies (RS) since 2003, beating Geography and History
- Higher Attainment 8 scores than average in schools with higher rates of entry for GCSE RS
- 46% of academies without a religious character have reported an increase in time to teach RE

However:

- Almost 500 secondary schools are still reporting zero hours of RE provision in Year 11
- Around 34% of academies are reporting no timetabled RE

The report card summarising the data review can be accessed here: www.rethinkre.org/re-report-card

NATRE PRIMARY SURVEY 2022- HAVE YOUR SAY!

NATRE is conducting a survey to obtain information about the current state of RE in all types of schools for Primary age children, so that it can continue to support the teacher in the classroom by raising awareness of the impact of government policy on RE. Make sure you have your say before the end of July. Survey link here.

THE RE QUALITY MARK IS 10 YEARS OLD

The RE Quality Mark is 10 years old! The RE Quality Mark (REQM) is a great way to celebrate RE in your school – and to demonstrate how RE can take a lead in overall school improvement.
