

Full resources for all core RE lessons!

NEW

For the first time we are producing a full set of resources to support every core lesson from Key Stage 1-4 in the Believing and Belonging RE syllabus.

These resources are tailored to this syllabus and not a general one-size-fits-all. They last five years cost little more than a day's supply.

PowerPoint presentations to cover each lesson, with recap, guidance and quizzes.

Knowledge Organiser for every unit.

Guidance on delivering the lessons.

Termly planning support webinar.

Task: Match up the key terms to the definitions

Atheist	A non-theistic worldview centred on human agency with a reliance on Science.
Agnostic	A person who believes that you can't be sure if God exists.
Humanist	The belief that there is no God and others should not believe either.
Spiritual	A person who disbelieves or lacks belief in the existence of God or gods.
Anti-theist	Can refer to a range of traditions and ideas that pursue personal growth.

KSB Core Unit: CB.1 What is religion? Lesson 5

These are the only resources matched to Believing and Belonging. Other national offers are not specifically written for the syllabus.

Samples of PowerPoints and Knowledge Organisers can be found here.

To enquire or discuss contact enquiries@penninelearning.com.

Normal cost £500 per key stage

Offer price for pre-orders £280 for whole primary/secondary phase.

This is a one-off subscription covering the five-year life of the syllabus with no annual repeat payments.

Tailor made for this syllabus by the authors, these resources will support experienced teachers and less experienced or cover colleagues, avoiding perils of internet trawling.

The new revised Believing and Belonging RE syllabus continues to be supported by a comprehensive set of planning for all 65 units of work. Schools can subscribe to these by emailing business.solutions@kirklees.gov.uk. The cost is £220 for a one-off five-year subscription.
